1. License Grant

- 1.1 The Software is licensed, not sold to you by ToLTech for use under the Terms of this EULA, and ToLTech reserves all rights not expressly granted to you. This EULA is between you and ToLTech, a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business at 12635 E. Montview Boulevard, Suite 123, Aurora, Colorado 80045, USA.
- 1.2 This license allows you to install one or more copies of the Software on computers that are owned or controlled by you as specified below in section 2.3. Use of the Software beyond the product installation phase is subject to additional terms, as provided in the following section, titled "Product Activation and Permitted Uses and Restrictions." No other use and no external redistribution of the Software are permitted.

2. Product Activation and Permitted Uses and Restrictions

- 2.1 The use of the full functionality of the Software requires "activation" which is a process in which a "product key" from ToLTech (or its authorized reseller) is entered and a corresponding "license key" is provided by ToLTech subject to the terms of purchase for the product key entered. ToLTech shall provide you with a license key subject to your agreement to terms and conditions of a software license ("Software License") electronically or otherwise presented to you by ToLTech during the Software activation process -- the Software License is not this EULA. Only after you have agreed to the terms and conditions in the Software License shall ToLTech grant you a limited, personal and non-exclusive license to use the full functionality (or agreed upon scope of functionality) of the Software. The license key may be a printable digital key, a nonprintable file, or any other mechanism used by ToLTech for license activation purposes. You agree that you will not attempt to override this license key.
- 2.2 Upon entering the product key as prompted by the Software activation process, you will be allowed to use the full functionality (or some scope of functionality agreed upon between you and ToLTech) of the Software on the machine on which the activation process was performed.
- 2.3 You may activate the Software on one (1) computer for your exclusive personal use for each product key provided by ToLTech unless otherwise explicitly granted by ToLTech. Such extension of your use of the Software on multiple computers owned by you or otherwise under your control, may be provided in conjunction with the product key, upon activation of the Software or upon registration of your contact information with ToLTech, or upon other consideration.
- 2.4 ToLTech reserves the right in its sole discretion to refuse requests for more than one license key per End User.
- 2.5 You may make copies of the Software for backup purposes only, provided that all copyright, trademark or other proprietary notices in the original Software remain intact in each backup copy.
- 2.6 You may not: (a) distribute images created or distributed with the Software in any manner not explicitly allowed by this EULA without express written consent of ToLTech; (b) alter, modify or remove any copyright, trademark or other proprietary notices included in the Software; (c) subvert the activation process for obtaining a license key from ToLTech; (d) rent, lease, sublicense or otherwise transfer, distribute or disseminate the Software without the express written consent of ToLTech; or (e) reverse engineer, decompile, modify, translate, create derivative works, merge or embed the Software into any other computer program, disassemble or reduce the Software to human readable form.
